2. In the G.O. 2nd read above orders were issued among others, for sanction of family pension to the Government employees absorbed in Public Sector Undertakings / Autonomous bodies who have retired, on par with State Government pensioners provided they do not draw family pension from any other source.

3. In the reference 3rd & 5th read above, Smt. G. Buchi Lakshmi, W/o Late Sri G.S. Sastry, Ex.P.A. to C.S., has requested for sanction of family pension in respect of her husband late Sri G.S. Sastry, Ex. 4. The request of the individual was examined and in the reference 6th read above, she was informed that she is not eligible for sanction of family pension as her husband expired in the year 2005 and whereas the orders were issued on 24.05.2011. These orders are prospective effect but not applicable in respect of those employees who expired before issue of these orders i.e., retrospectively following the date of death. The said facts were also informed to the Accountant General with reference to his letter dated:27.12.2012.

5. Consequent on issue of the above said memo, the Senior Accounts Officer, O/o Principal Accountant General (A&E), Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad in his letter 7th read above has informed the Secretary to Government, Finance (Pensions) Department that the office of Accountant General, Andhra Pradesh, is authorising the benefit of Family pension to the Government Servants who were absorbed in Government undertakings as per the provisions of G.O. 2nd read above with monetary benefit from the date of issue of the order. But the Government in General Administration Department vide memo 6th read above, have opined that the benefit is applicable to Government servants who have been absorbed with effect from 24.05.2011 only. He has therefore requested the Finance Department to clarify the above position to avoid confusion in this matter.

[P.T.O]

6. In the reference 8th read above, the Finance (PSC) Department have clarified that the Government Servants who were already absorbed in the PSUs/Autonomous Bodies and subsequently retired and drawing the pension or expired before issue of these orders, the eligibility of Family Pension commences from 24.05.2011 (i.e.) as on the date of issue of the Government orders, but not from the date following the date of the Government Servant/Service Pensioner and as such there orders are prospective but not retrospective.

7. In the light of the above clarification issued by the Finance Department the request of Smt. G. Buchi Lakshmi has once again been examined and she is eligible for sanction of Pension with effect from 24.05.2011 (i.e.) from the date of issue of orders in the reference 2nd read above.
